The work of the Lord is prospering well in all the areas of my participation. Apart from my regular work in our church, the month of April was full of weddings of our christain members. I have performed some and preached in some of the weddings. On 1st of April I have travelled to Mominpet and preached. On 8th I preached in the gospel meeting at Church of Christ Pullmaddi, it's a new congregation 82 members attended most of them are visitors thy have taken good advantage of the meeting.
