FIRST MEETING AS CHURCH

On Sunday June 12, 2016 in the city of Rawson (Chubut Capital) at 10:30 Am. in the morning the first meeting as a church, with three of the five new brothers who were baptized on Sunday the 5th took place.

In this first meeting were 8 adult (five Christians and three visitors) and five children. Brother Christian Alvarez Moyelak was responsible for coordinating and commissioned to preach. This time teaching was focused on the need for our names to be in the book of life.

TWO BAPTISMS

After the meeting and having lunch, we had a brief Bible study with a young couple who attended the meeting invitation: Cristian and Jimena (daughter of the sister Mabel)

The study was based primarily on baptism, after explaining lead them to make him understand what the Bible teaches and what was happening in the church they attended with purpose and make them understand that his baptism was false. Themselves drew their own conclusions and realized that his baptism was false, which actually believing be saved were still in your sins. At 5 pm they asked to be baptized as the Lord ordered. And at 5:30 approx. They were immersed in the cold waters of the river Chubut for the forgiveness of their sins.

Left to Right:: Alejandro Correa, Jimena, Cristian, Hno. Christian Alvarez, Hna. Alejandra Gijena.

Please pray for this work that is being done in this city, for the seven new brothers in faith.

All glory be to God!

Your brother in Christ... Claudio Alejandro Correa ■
