Beach Street CHURCH OF CHRIST

Esteemed brethren at Beach Street,

God's providence continues to be a powerful factor in our daily lives. With the Lord's help we are standing fast and faithful. We are well and safe; we are grateful, and we are focused in our daily commitments. Our faith continues to be tested, but our resolve will never falter.

To each of you who has a direct or indirect part in our lives and work – we appreciate the great sacrifice you are making as you faithfully participate with us in the work of evangelism. As you know, we are presently traveling a rocky and bumpy road that sooner or later will return us to our regular work schedule. Thanks for your prayers, help and patience. You are demonstrating a wholesome and sober attitude – our Lord is noticing your faith and commitment and will surely reward you.

All my preaching trips and appoints for the months of March, April, May, and June were canceled – all for the obvious reasons. I am grateful to all the good brethren who, with a deep sense of thoughtfulness and awareness, notified me of their plans to postpone these preaching assignments. They are concerned about us and pray for us as we do for them.

If all goes well, the second week in July I am scheduled to teach two series of classes in Mexico City with the Tacuba congregation. The first series of lessons is titled, “Preparándonos para servir” (English title, “Preparing Ourselves To Serve”). This series deals mainly with preparing men as teachers and preachers in the local congregation. The second series of lessons is titled, “El estudio contextual” (English title, “Contextual Study”). This other series deals with learning how to teach each book of the N. T. according to its context. I am looking forward to teaching these classes.

I will have additional information to share with you in my next report on my scheduled trip to Mexico City and other future preaching trips to several places in Latin America.

Our three children, Caleb, Ciara and Catia, completed their school year in excellent fashion, despite the challenges brought by the changes in their schoolwork. Caleb advanced to the 9th grade, and Ciara and Catia to the 7th grade. Caleb turned 14 years old in April. Ciara and Catia turned 12 years old in May. They are well and happy. And so is Minnie.

We need and solicit your prayers and continued fellowship.

In Christ,
Ruben C. Amador
