REPORT OF THE

MONTH AUGUST 2020

The grace and mercy of God be with you.

The brothers of the Church here send you greetings.

We are grateful to God and to all of you for so much mercy towards us.

For the glory of our great Lord and Savior, this month we began to meet again as a church on Sunday, after 5 long months the attendance on the meeting day has been very good.

We have worked so that the brothers do not get discouraged and continue with their gaze fixed on Jesus, our Lord.

This month I have also dedicated myself to visiting more of our indigenous brothers (Wayuu), they have not stopped meeting despite the pandemic.

We continue with weekly Bible studies, evangelism and visits with sick brothers.

I ask for your prayers for our country so that our situation improves.

I also ask for your prayers for the church in our country, also for my health and that of my family.

This month has been a lot of work.

Once again, thank you for all the help, God always multiply you.

His brother and servant, Jose Gregorio Diaz.

Peace and Mercy.
