BAPTISM IN RAWSON:

On Saturday 3 trip to the city of Rawson with my wife to be with the brothers there, Saturday and Sunday. I did not visit this congregation for more than a month because of the work I was doing in southern Chile.

On Saturday at 7:30 pm we had a Bible study and the topic discussed was the use of the term apostle in the New Testament. Sunday preach about discouragement.

The meeting was attended by a 29-year-old male, Denis León, son of Sister Catalina Sepulveda who congregates there. After the meeting, we talked as usual and with this talk about the purpose and need of baptism, after which the young man asked to be baptized for the forgiveness of his sins. That same day (2 pm we went to the Chubut River, to a place called Elsa to proceed with baptism. Baptism let the brothers there, Jorge Sosa and Hugo Roa, I proceeded to take the declaration of faith, then of which the two brothers and the young man entered the waters of the river to baptize.

Economic Support: It is the same one that I have been receiving for years, without variation of amount, being helped by two churches and a family from the USA.

All glory and honor be given to the Lord. God bless you ■
