Beach Street CHURCH OF CHRIST

Dear brethren at Beach Street,

You and all your loved ones are in our thoughts and prayers. All of us remain blessed and safe in the Lord's care. We remain grateful for all the spiritual blessings that are ours in Christ. These are the blessings I preach in my sermons and teach by example. You, my partner in this work, and the good Lord make my preaching work possible. Pray that your work at Beach Street continues to grow.

New Caney, Texas:

The original date for this gospel meeting was in February, but it was moved to March due to the freezing weather. I preached a series on "FIRST THINGS FIRST" – lessons based on the first things written in 1 John, 1 Thessalonians, Romans, 1 Corinthians, Galatians, 1 Peter and 2 Thessalonians. Although the meeting was mainly intended for the local church, several visitors attended the meeting. It was a joy to participate in this local endeavor.

Mexico City:

After my visit, it is good to see and know of the faithfulness of brethren living in this city of some 24 million people. There are three sound local churches in the city – the Colonia Tacuba congregation is the oldest with Daniel Martinez as their local evangelist. In Xonacatlán and Metepec (outside of the city of Toluca) both churches continue to meet. Severiano Solis faithfully works with both groups.

Costa Rica:

Ivan Palomino (Miami, Florida) and I are scheduled to be in Costa Rica later this month. We will be working with Marvin Soto and Santiago Soto – both men work with the local church in Alajuela. Additionally, Marvin works with the local church in Alajuelita.

Peru & Dominican Republic:

As I indicated in my last newsletter, I remain in contact with the brethren in these two countries. In Lima, Emilio Lerzundi and several members of his family are suffering from COVID-19. I have no immediate plans to visit in Lima. I do have plans to travel to the Dominican Republic in May.

Thanks for your understanding and patience – for your fervent prayers and faithful support.

In Christ,
Ruben C. Amador
